

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 26, 1891.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. SAWYER, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 3070.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 3070) granting a pension to Clara Fowler, have examined the same and report:

The report on which this bill was passed by the House is concurred in and is as follows:

Your committee have examined the evidence in the case of Clara Fowler, for whom a pension is provided in H. R. 3070, and find that she is the unmarried daughter of Francis A. Fowler, late a corporal of Company A, Seventh Regiment of Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, now deceased; that she was on the pension-roll until she became 16 years of age; that she is totally blind and paralyzed and with impaired mind, and incapable of earning a living or caring for herself. Her mother remarried and is in dependent circumstances.

Your committee therefore recommend the passage of the bill.

The bill is reported favorably, with a recommendation that it do pass.
